3.2. Please email the IUCN contact to express your interest in submitting a proposal by the deadline stated below. This will help IUCN to keep you updated regarding the procurement.
4. COMPLETING AND SUBMITTING A PROPOSAL

4.1. Your Proposal must consist of the following four separate documents:

- Signed Declaration of Undertaking (see Attachment 2)
- Pre-Qualification Information (see Section 4.3 below)
- Technical Proposal (see Section 4.4 below)
- Financial Proposal (see Section 4.5 below)

Proposals must be prepared in English.

4.2. Your Proposal must be submitted by email to the IUCN Contact (see Section 2). The subject heading of the email shall be [RfP Reference – bidder name]. The bidder name is the name of the company/organisation on whose behalf you are submitting the proposal, or your own surname if you are bidding as a self-employed consultant. Your proposal must be submitted in PDF format. You may submit multiple emails suitably annotated, e.g. Email 1 of 3, if attached files are too large to suit a single email transmission. You may not submit your Proposal by uploading it to a file-sharing tool.

IMPORTANT: Submitted documents must be password-protected so that they cannot be opened and read before the submission deadline. Please use the same password for all submitted documents. After the deadline has passed and within 12 hours, please send the password to the IUCN Contact. This will ensure a secure bid submission and opening process. Please DO NOT email the password before the deadline for Proposal submission.

4.3. Pre-Qualification Criteria

IUCN will use the following Pre-Qualification Criteria to determine whether you have the capacity to provide the required goods and/or services to IUCN. Please provide the necessary information in a single, separate document.

<thead>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. State your annual turnover for each of the past 3 years</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tbody>
</table>

4.4. Technical Proposal

The technical proposal must address each of the criteria stated below explicitly and separately, quoting the relevant criteria reference number (left-hand column).

Proposals in any other format will significantly increase the time it takes to evaluate, and such Proposals may therefore be rejected at IUCN’s discretion.

Where CVs are requested, these must be of the individuals who will actually carry out the work specified. The individuals you put forward may only be substituted with IUCN’s approval.

IUCN will evaluate technical proposals with regards to each of the following criteria and their relative importance:

Following evaluation of the technical and financial proposal, the top 5 bids will be taken forward to the final selection round involving interviews.

Interviews will consist of technical questions based on the bidder’s technical and financial proposal (e.g. the proposed approach and implementation plan, adequacy and appropriateness of technical solutions and systems proposed, the bidder’s experience in developing websites and handling projects of a similar nature, scope and size etc.) and will be awarded a score (out of 10), which will be added to the previous weighted total technical and financial scores.

4.5. Financial Proposal

4.5.1. The financial proposal must be a fixed and firm price for the provision of the goods/services stated in the RfP in their entirety.

Please note, the maximum contract amount is 60,000 Euros.

4.5.2. Prices include all costs

Submitted rates and prices are deemed to include all costs, insurances, taxes (except VAT, see below), fees, expenses, liabilities, obligations, risk and other things necessary for the performance of the Terms of Reference or Specification of Requirements. IUCN will not accept charges beyond those clearly stated in the Financial Proposal. This includes applicable withholding taxes and similar. It is your responsibility to determine whether such taxes apply to your organisation and to include them in your financial offer.

4.5.3. Applicable Goods and Services Taxes

Proposal rates and prices shall be exclusive of Value Added Tax.

4.5.4. Currency of proposed rates and prices

All rates and prices submitted by Proposers shall be in Euros.

4.5.5. Breakdown of rates and prices

Please include a proposed project budget and time estimate (days), with a breakdown of the activities this will cover. Please also include a budget proposal for post-launch regular website maintenance support in 2023.

Proposals should also include a non-binding price proposal for purchase and ongoing management of the SSL certificate, and the hosting solution for the website.

4.6. Additional information not requested by IUCN should not be included in your Proposal and will not be taken into account in the evaluation.

4.7. Your proposal must remain valid and capable of acceptance by IUCN for a period of 90 calendar days following the submission deadline.

4.8. Withdrawals and Changes

You may freely withdraw or change your proposal at any time prior to the submission deadline by written notice to the IUCN Contact. However, in order to reduce the risk of fraud, no changes or withdrawals will be accepted after the submission deadline.

5. EVALUATION OF PROPOSALS

5.1. Completeness

IUCN will firstly check your proposal for completeness. Incomplete proposals will not be considered further.

5.2. Pre-Qualification Criteria

Only proposals that meet all of the pre-qualification criteria will be evaluated.

5.3. Technical Evaluation

5.3.1. Scoring Method

Your proposal will be assigned a score from 0 to 10 for each of the technical evaluation criteria, such that ‘0’ is low and ‘10’ is high.

5.3.2. Minimum Quality Thresholds

Proposals that receive a score of ‘0’ for any of the criteria will not be considered further.

5.3.3. Technical Score

Your score for each technical evaluation criterion will be multiplied with the respective relative weight (see Section 4.4) and these weighted scores added together to give your proposal’s overall technical score.

5.4. Financial Evaluation and Financial Scores

The financial evaluation will be based upon the full total price you submit. Your financial proposal will receive a score calculated by dividing the lowest financial proposal that has passed the minimum quality thresholds (see Section 5.3.2) by the total price of your financial proposal.
Thus, for example, if your financial proposal is for a total of CHF 100 and the lowest financial proposal is CHF 80, you will receive a financial score of 80/100 = 80%

5.5. Total Score

Your proposal’s total score will be calculated as the weighted sum of your technical score and your financial score.

The relative weights will be:

<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Technical</td>
<td>70%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Financial</td>
<td>30%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Thus, for example, if your technical score is 83% and your financial score is 77%, you will receive a total score of 83 * 70% + 77 * 30% = 58.1% + 23.1% = 81.2%.

Subject to the requirements in Sections 4 and 7, IUCN will award the contract to the bidder whose proposal achieves the highest total score.

6. EXPLANATION OF PROCUREMENT PROCEDURE

6.1. IUCN is using the Open Procedure for this procurement. This means that the contracting opportunity is published on IUCN’s website and open to all interested parties to take part, subject to the conditions in Section 7 below.

6.2. You are welcome to ask questions or seek clarification regarding this procurement. Please email the IUCN Contact (see Section 2), taking note of the deadline for submission of questions in Section 3.1.

6.3. All proposals must be received by the submission deadline in Section 3.2 above. Late proposals will not be considered. All proposals received by the submission deadline will be evaluated by a team of three or more evaluators in accordance with the evaluation criteria stated in this RfP. No other criteria will be used to evaluate proposals. The contract will be awarded to the bidder whose proposal received the highest Total Score. IUCN does, however, reserve the right to cancel the procurement and not award a contract at all.

6.4. IUCN will contact the bidder with the highest-scoring proposal to finalise the contract. We will contact unsuccessful bidders after the contract has been awarded and provide detailed feedback. The timetable in Section 3.1 gives an estimate of when we expect to have completed the contract award, but this date may change depending on how long the evaluation of proposals takes.

7. CONDITIONS FOR PARTICIPATION IN THIS PROCUREMENT

7.1. To participate in this procurement, you are required to submit a proposal, which fully complies with the instructions in this RfP and the Attachments.

7.1.1. It is your responsibility to ensure that you have submitted a complete and fully compliant proposal.

7.1.2. Any incomplete or incorrectly completed proposal submission may be deemed non-compliant, and as a result you may be unable to proceed further in the procurement process.

7.1.3. IUCN will query any obvious clerical errors in your proposal and may, at IUCN’s sole discretion, allow you to correct these, but only if doing so could not be perceived as giving you an unfair advantage.

7.2. In order to participate in this procurement, you must meet the following conditions:

- Free of conflicts of interest
- Registered on the relevant professional or trade register of the country in which you are established (or resident, if self-employed)
• In full compliance with your obligations relating to payment of social security contributions and of all applicable taxes
• Not been convicted of failing to comply with environmental regulatory requirements or other legal requirements relating to sustainability and environmental protection
• Not bankrupt or being wound up
• Never been guilty of an offence concerning your professional conduct
• Not involved in fraud, corruption, a criminal organisation, money laundering, terrorism, or any other illegal activity.

7.3. You must complete and sign the Declaration of Undertaking (see Attachment 2).

7.4. If you are participating in this procurement as a member of a joint venture, or are using sub-contractors, submit a separate Declaration of Undertaking for each member of the joint venture and sub-contractor, and be clear in your proposal which parts of the goods/services are provided by each partner or sub-contractor.

7.5. Each bidder shall submit only one proposal, either individually or as a partner in a joint venture. In case of joint venture, one company shall not be allowed to participate in two different joint ventures in the same procurement nor shall a company be allowed to submit a proposal both on its behalf and as part of a joint venture for the same procurement. A bidder who submits or participates in more than one proposal (other than as a subcontractor or in cases of alternatives that have been permitted or requested) shall cause all the proposals with the bidder’s participation to be disqualified.

7.6. By taking part in this procurement, you accept the conditions set out in this RfP, including the following:

• It is unacceptable to give or offer any gift or consideration to an employee or other representative of IUCN as a reward or inducement in relation to the awarding of a contract. Such action will give IUCN the right to exclude you from this and any future procurements, and to terminate any contract that may have been signed with you.

• Any attempt to obtain information from an employee or other representative of IUCN concerning another bidder will result in disqualification.

• Any price fixing or collusion with other bidders in relation to this procurement shall give IUCN the right to exclude you and any other involved bidder(s) from this and any future procurements and may constitute a criminal offence.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY AND DATA PROTECTION

8.1. IUCN follows the European Union’s General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The information you submit to IUCN as part of this procurement will be treated as confidential and shared only as required to evaluate your proposal in line with the procedure explained in this RfP, and for the maintenance of a clear audit trail. For audit purposes, IUCN is required to retain your proposal in its entirety for 10 years and make this available to internal and external auditors and donors as and when requested.

8.2. In the Declaration of Undertaking (Attachment 2) you need to give IUCN express permission to use the information you submit in this way, including personal data that forms part of your proposal. Where you include personal data of your employees (e.g. CVs) in your proposal, you need to have written permission from those individuals to share this information with IUCN, and for IUCN to use this information as indicated in 8.1. Without these permissions, IUCN will not be able to consider your proposal.

9. COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

If you have a complaint or concern regarding the propriety of how a competitive process is or has been executed, then please contact procurement@iucn.org. Such complaints or concerns will be treated as confidential and are not considered in breach of the above restrictions on communication (Section 2.1).
10. CONTRACT

The contract will be based on IUCN’s template in Attachment 3, the terms of which are not negotiable. They may, however, be amended by IUCN to reflect particular requirements from the donor funding this particular procurement.

11. ABOUT IUCN

IUCN is a membership Union uniquely composed of both government and civil society organisations. It provides public, private and non-governmental organisations with the knowledge and tools that enable human progress, economic development and nature conservation to take place together.

Headquartered in Switzerland, IUCN Secretariat comprises around 1,000 staff with offices in more than 50 countries.

Created in 1948, IUCN is now the world’s largest and most diverse environmental network, harnessing the knowledge, resources and reach of more than 1,300 Member organisations and some 10,000 experts. It is a leading provider of conservation data, assessments and analysis. Its broad membership enables IUCN to fill the role of incubator and trusted repository of best practices, tools and international standards.

IUCN provides a neutral space in which diverse stakeholders including governments, NGOs, scientists, businesses, local communities, indigenous peoples organisations and others can work together to forge and implement solutions to environmental challenges and achieve sustainable development.

Working with many partners and supporters, IUCN implements a large and diverse portfolio of conservation projects worldwide. Combining the latest science with the traditional knowledge of local communities, these projects work to reverse habitat loss, restore ecosystems and improve people’s well-being.

1. About the World Heritage Leadership Programme

Background

The World Heritage Leadership Programme is a capacity building initiative of ICCROM and IUCN, initiated in 2016 with financial support from the Ministry of Climate and Environment of the Government of Norway. The Programme seeks to build and develop the capacities of people and institutions working in heritage management, and empower them to improve the conservation and management of cultural and natural heritage places, including UNESCO World Heritage sites.

Programme implementation

The Programme is implemented by IUCN and the International Centre for the Study of the Preservation and Restoration of Cultural Property (ICCROM), in collaboration with the International Council on Monuments and Sites (ICOMOS), the UNESCO World Heritage Centre, and other partner organisations.

IUCN is the official advisory body on nature to the UNESCO World Heritage Committee. Working closely with IUCN’s Commissions, IUCN Members and a range of partners, IUCN evaluates new sites nominated to the World Heritage List, monitors the conservation of listed sites, and promotes the World Heritage Convention as a leading global instrument for conservation. IUCN also provides support, advice and training to site managers, governments, scientists and local communities.

ICCROM is an intergovernmental organisation dedicated to the preservation of cultural heritage worldwide. Through training, information, research, cooperation and advocacy programmes, it aims to enhance the field of heritage conservation and restoration, and raise awareness to the importance and fragility of cultural heritage. ICCROM is an official advisory body to the UNESCO World Heritage Committee. As an Advisory Body to the World Heritage Convention, ICCROM leverages knowledge gained within the World Heritage system to help its Member States improve conservation and management of World Heritage properties and a wider range of sites. ICCROM’s role in World Heritage helps it better understand conservation needs, while the related capacity building work gives ICCROM access to information on training needs, valid within the World Heritage context and beyond.

Aims of the Programme:

The World Heritage Leadership Programme aims to:

- Set and test the leading standards for conserving heritage places, and ensure these places contribute to communities and sustainable development;
- Provide high-profile documented advice on conservation policies and practices that are accessible in many languages
- Create a network of internationally-recognised leadership sites, for example World Heritage sites that demonstrate leading practice, and can provide platforms for learning and capacity building;
- Build international networks between nature and culture practitioners and institutions that link on-the-ground practice with leadership from local to global levels; and
- Provide diverse training events, exchanges, and other capacity-building activities to support the work of both heritage managers and stakeholders, and national heritage services in countries
An online presence for the World Heritage Leadership Programme

The World Heritage Leadership Programme implementing team is seeking to create a website (currently known as the “World Heritage Leadership Knowledge Platform”, or WHLK Platform for short\(^1\)) to empower heritage managers improve the conservation and management of heritage places, and profile the work of the Programme.

A key aspect of the Platform is that it will serve as the dynamic online interface for the World Heritage Management Manual publication and other manuals on World Heritage management, all of which are currently in development. The WHLK Platform will showcase key content on heritage management from these manuals, taking users on a journey towards understanding and implementing successful heritage management.

Users visiting the platform will be able to engage on a series of heritage management topics, including: management systems for heritage places; heritage values and attributes; people and communities; heritage services/benefits; factors affecting heritage; governance and decision-making for heritage; disaster risk management; impact assessment; monitoring and evaluation; and tools for enhancing management effectiveness.

2. Summary of the Requirement

IUCN invites you to submit a proposal to design, develop and maintain a new website for the World Heritage Leadership Knowledge Platform (WHLK Platform). The requirements for this project are detailed in the sections below.

Proposals must be submitted in English and in the format specified in Section 4 the RfP.

3. Background

The need for a website for the World Heritage Leadership Programme

We need to create a website for the World Heritage Leadership Programme in order to:

- Empower heritage practitioners and their institutions: We want to harness the power of digital to motivate our target audiences to learn about successful heritage management. Most of the knowledge gathered under this Programme is captured in the form of PDF guidelines and manuals. We want to turn this PDF guidance into a dynamic online user experience for our users, thus increasing uptake and impact.

- Increase our profile and visibility: The World Heritage Leadership Programme currently does not have strong visibility or branding. Information on the Programme is found in various places online, highlighted by its two implementing institutions (see here and here). We would like to build a dedicated online presence for the Programme, which can serve as the hub for World Heritage site practitioners to find information, tools and resources on different aspects of heritage management.

- Bring everything together: The Programme is developing a lot of knowledge resources for the heritage management community, from guidance manuals, to training courses and webinars. These resources need to be brought into one centralised space online, in a cohesive and systematic way that is easy to search through for users.

4. Scope of this RfP

The contractor will manage the end-to-end design and development of the website, including (but not limited to) the following phases:

\(^1\) Note: The name of the platform is not considered final and may change.
• Information Architecture design (including user experience)

• Design of the website and underlying Content Management System (CMS). The design of the website will need to align with indicative design and brand identity provided by IUCN.

• Development, testing and deployment (“launch”)

• Post-launch support, maintenance and security management

Bidders need to include information on how they will approach the end-to-end process. In addition, bidders should also include in their proposals recommendations and a solid rationale for:

• Technical architecture (including CMS tool provider and all components/tools used)

• Hosting solution (including security solution(s))

• Any third party service required by the hosting solution

Copy writing for the website is out of scope and will be undertaken by IUCN and ICCROM staff, who will upload the content onto the website using the CMS.

5. Objectives

The new website needs to support the general objectives of the World Heritage Leadership Programme and its Communication strategy. The website will aim to:

1. Become the go-to platform for heritage practitioners to learn about effective heritage management, on a range of topics, from key theoretical concepts, to proven, evidence-based strategies for improving the conservation of heritage places on the ground

2. Familiarise heritage managers with heritage places that are exemplars of conservation practice and management, empowering managers to adapt best practice from these exemplar sites for use in their own heritage places

3. Provide access to heritage resources to users from all over the world, in multiple languages and formats (e.g. online, printable), and shareable via main social media networks

4. Serve as a leading hub for information on heritage courses, training events, news and opportunities, and other capacity building activities offered by the World Heritage Leadership Programme and other institutions

5. Be considered as a quality provider of information on heritage management by the international heritage community, with a strong visual identity and online presence

6. Key audiences

The website has three main audiences:

1. Site managers: the primary audience for the WHLK Platform are people who coordinate on-the-ground protection and management of heritage places. Site managers encompass a diverse set of on-the-ground staff (e.g. site directors, archaeologists, architects, rangers, visitor managers), all working together to conserve heritage places. They play a critical role in everyday protection and management of a heritage place, including monitoring and adapting management to ensure the heritage place continues to be protected into the future.
2. Government management authorities: The second main audience for the WHLK Platform are people who work in local, regional or national level government (e.g. city councils, national ministries, government policy institutions). These users advise and interact with site managers on issues that impact heritage (e.g. local land use zoning policies), and engage in national or international efforts for heritage conservation (e.g. national engagement with the UNESCO World Heritage Convention).

3. Local communities: The third main audience for the WHLK Platform are the people living in or close to heritage places. Many heritage places are located within land that is held and managed by local communities, including Indigenous Peoples, who maintain strong linkages between place, people, culture and identity, and play a central role in conserving heritage places (e.g. through traditional management practices).

Other audiences that may access the WHLK platform to engage on heritage management issues include: researchers and academics, the private sector (e.g. tourism, extractives, and finance industries), members of civil society (e.g. non-governmental organisations), youth, and members of the general public.

Note: IUCN and ICCROM held a workshop in 2021, together with participants from the World Heritage management sector, to discuss and map out key audiences for the WHLK Platform, and develop a set of personas. The outcomes of this workshop (including persona profiles) will be shared with the successful bidder to inform the website development work.

7. Structure and information architecture

The website Information Architecture needs to be designed taking into account the website objectives, our main audiences and their needs. In 2021, a card sorting workshop was undertaken with the Programme implementing team to explore the ways in which the website could be structured. IUCN will provide the outcomes of this workshop to the successful bidder to inform the development of the Information Architecture for the website.

In general, the website should be simple and easy to navigate, and the structure and design should be driven by best-in-class user experience principles. While the aesthetics of the site are an important component, a clear Information Architecture with a streamlined user experience are the priorities. This website will feature large amounts of content in the form of text from at least four different heritage management manuals, so a clear, modular organisation system will need to be developed to facilitate a good user experience.

The bidder should include information on how they would approach the Information Architecture development process and what would be required from IUCN to help facilitate the process. Please include a solid rationale for your approach.

8. Design

Although the World Heritage Leadership Programme currently does not have strong online visibility or branding, an initial indicative design and brand identity have been developed by a designer for the main heritage management manuals. The design work was a collaborative exercise between the manual authors and the designer, and has been informed by the overall manual development process and capacity building objectives of the World Heritage Leadership Programme.

As a result of this process, the general visual look, colour palettes, and iconography have been determined. The design of the website will need to align with these components so that it is clear that the website and manuals are part of the same family of products from the World Heritage Leadership Programme. These design resources and guidelines will be provided to the successful bidder at the beginning of the project.

To assist interested bidders, some examples of the types of websites we consider well-designed and structured are provided below. To be clear, we do not wish to replicate the design and structure of these websites, rather we are providing these examples to serve as potential sources of inspiration for the design and structure of the WHLK platform:

- The DYI Toolkit for development practitioners
- The Wayfinder platform on resilience assessment approaches
- The PANORAMA platform on solutions for a healthy planet
- The US Climate Resilience Toolkit

9. Functionality requirements

Key functionality must include:

- Intuitive navigation and a great user journey: The WHLK Platform will introduce users to a lot of information and themes on heritage management. It will be content-heavy and feature many types of resources. Making navigation for the user as easy and intuitive as possible is a priority, as is ensuring a great user journey.

- Access to activities and resources of the Programme: The WHLK Platform will be the go-to hub for all information on heritage management and capacity building. The diverse set of activities, course offerings, news, resources and other activities need to feature prominently on the site, in a way our users find straightforward to access.

- An easy to use and cost-effective CMS: We need a CMS that is easy to for our staff to use and is cheap to maintain in the long term. The CMS should facilitate easy upload of and edits to content across the site. The proposer should provide estimated costs for yearly maintenance of the proposed CMS platform following launch.

Specific functionality requirements for the website and CMS include:

<td>The WHLK Platform must provide a user-friendly experience for visitors exploring content on heritage management, which will be sourced from the heritage management manuals. The CMS must:

| R18 | Have different types of back-end users | The CMS must allow for different IUCN/ICCROM CMS manager (hereafter “CMS manager”) roles with different permissions, for example, administrators (who have access to everything/all permissions), and content editors (who can add/edit content and submit for review and publishing by the administrator). |
| R19 | Allow certain CMS managers to manage CMS users | Some CMS managers (e.g. administrators) should be able to add, edit and delete other CMS managers. |
| R20 | Allow content, menus and taxonomies to be editable by CMS managers | The CMS should allow all content, menus and taxonomies (e.g. tags) to be editable by CMS managers (in English and French), without the need for content to be uploaded or edited by the contractor. This will help ensure that managing the platform in the long term is sustainable for IUCN and ICCROM. The CMS will also need to feature version information for pages (i.e. which user edited which page and when). A CMS user manual should clearly indicate to CMS managers how to update different sections of the website. |
| R21 | Allow new or edited content to be previewed before being published | Edited content, or new content must have the option to be previewed by CMS managers before being published. |
| R23 | Have a user-friendly search functionality for content | CMS managers will need to be able to search through webpages to edit them. A simple search/filtering functionality will need to be integrated for all webpage content in the CMS. |
| R24 | Easy to use image upload function, which includes caption and copyright fields | CMS managers will need to be able to easily upload images and preview how images will look once published on the site. The image upload function must have fields for the image caption, and copyright information. |

It would be nice for the website to…

| R25 | Have social media sharing functionality | We would like to enable website users to share content on social media, e.g. Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn. This feature could include automatic generation of image and text for sharing on social media. |
| R26 | Optimise webpages for printing | Some of our users will want to print content from webpages. We would be keen to explore options for optimising webpage content for printing (e.g. either directly from the webpage, or using an automatic PDF download functionality for webpages). |

Bidders need to describe the design and architecture platform they recommend for hosting the website and back-end system, with clear reasons for their recommendation and addressing the above listed requirements.

10. Accessibility
The website should adhere to the latest Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) standards (2.1). The website will be available in English (UK) and French.

11. Browsers and device support
The website design needs to be fully adaptable across mobile, tablet and desktop – we welcome recommendations on whether a responsive design or adaptive web design is the best option.

The website should function in the latest versions of Chrome, Safari and Firefox, Microsoft Edge as well as IE 10 – 11.

12. Security and legal
Maximum level of security, preventing breaches such as spam, viruses, phishing, DOS and DDOS attacks, site hijacking, unapproved posting and content, FTP access and personal information, content or database thefts. IUCN reserves the right to mandate a third-party company to pen-test the delivered site after go-live and at regular intervals subsequently. After go-live, any resulting fixes will need to be implemented by the Contractor.

The website must be SSL protected. The proposal should include a non-binding proposal for purchase and ongoing management of the SSL certificate.

Finally, the website must be compliant with GDPR and there must be a fully GDPR compliant Cookie Consent module included on the site (as per requirement R16). The contractor must also provide IUCN with details of all cookies applied to the site, to be used in the Privacy Policy (this does not need to be included in the proposal), as well as describe all personal data collected throughout the site and the reasons for the collection.

13. Search Engine Optimisation
The development of the website must involve Search Engine Optimisation (SEO), and post launch ongoing SEO monitoring and optimisation.

14. Hosting
Bidders should include details on the hosting solutions required by their proposal, as well as a non-binding hosting proposal.

15. Training
The proposal should include a training session for the IUCN/ICCROM CMS managers, including the provision of a concise CMS user manual.

16. Ongoing support and maintenance
After its launch, the website will need:

- Small modifications and improvements that will not significantly modify the core structure of the website that will be developed;
- Standard maintenance, backup and updates to the server and the CMS environment;
- Security maintenance of all components/tools required by the website;
- Ongoing maintenance and SEO monitoring and optimisation.

We are looking for a contractor who can help our team navigate technological decisions by clearly explaining the risks, benefits and potential alternatives for meeting certain objectives. The contractor should also be proactive in their maintenance of the website, offering advice and solutions to IUCN/ICCROM on an ongoing basis.

The expectation is for the contractor to respond with a solution within 6 hours to any issue regarding security and 24 hours to any client request involving modifications. There must be an issue management system in place that allows IUCN/ICCROM to track progress on issues and hours spent by the contractor.

The maintenance services to be provided by the contractor for the website following launch will cover the period to 31 December 2023, with a view to being renewed annually at the mutual agreement between IUCN and the contractor.

Further significant developments needed to the website that are not in the scope of this RfP or the support and maintenance services and that require additional effort from the contractor will be mutually agreed and acknowledged accordingly in future separate contracts.

17. Timeframe
The website development work will be carried out over the course of 2022, with three key delivery dates:

We would like a demo version of the website to be ready by 15 June 2022, in time for the annual World Heritage Committee meeting. This demo version of the website will be shown to a public audience as an early demonstration of the WHLK Platform. The idea is to provide a short demonstration of the design of the homepage, structure of the main navigation tabs, and design and content for a few key website pages – e.g. content page, news and events page, resources page. Given the short timeframe for the demo version development, it is not crucial for the CMS to be developed in time for the showcasing of the demo version of the site, this will depend on the approach suggested by bidders.

The remaining technical work on the site needs to be completed by 1 September 2022, with the entire design, information architecture and CMS completed by 1 September in order to allow for IUCN and ICCROM staff to populate the webpage templates from September to November 2022. The aim is to launch the site in early December 2022.

17. APPLICABLE LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 The performance and interpretation of this Agreement will be subject exclusively to the laws of Switzerland, excluding its conflict of laws principles.

17.2 Any dispute arising out of or in relation with this Agreement that cannot be resolved amicably by the Parties or by way of mediation shall be submitted to the competent courts of Lausanne, Switzerland.

18. GENERAL PROVISIONS

18.1 This Agreement is the complete understanding between IUCN and the Consultant and replaces all other agreements and understandings in reference to the subject matter of this Agreement.

18.2 Any modification or amendment of this Agreement shall be in writing and shall become effective if and when signed by both Parties.

18.3 This Consultancy Agreement is non-exclusive. IUCN is free to consult other experts in the Consultant’s field of specialization.
