The IUCN Commissions are one of three important pillars within IUCN’s statutorily created structure, complementing the other primary pillars. The global expertise harnessed by the Commissions contributes both stature and substance to IUCN. The Commissions’ contributions enable the Union to access considerable expertise, amplifying and assisting the work of the Secretariat and Members.

So much of what the IUCN achieves is a collective contribution. Membership in IUCN’s Commissions confers a high level of recognition and respect to professionals who volunteer to join in IUCN’s overall efforts to achieve its important mission and vision. This Code of Conduct is designed to ensure that the members of IUCN’s Commissions consistently conduct their work and interactions in an ethical, professional, impartial, unbiased and tolerant manner.

The Code reaffirms and supplements the by-laws of individual Commissions.

- Where for any reason, any Commission member finds that he/she cannot comply with this Code of Conduct, to notify the Chair (or designee) of every Commission in which that member participates, and from that point onward to refrain from claiming to be an IUCN Commission member. (IUCN, the Commissions and their SGs will not criticise any member who takes this option, as long as that person continues to behave respectfully toward IUCN and its Commissions and SGs).

- Upon becoming aware of any violation of this Code of Conduct, to request that the person(s) engaging in the violation cease such behaviour.
