

Elizabeth A. Kirk

Chair, IUCN Academy of Environmental Law
Ex Officio Member, WCEL Steering Committee

Elizabeth A. Kirk is Professor of International Environmental Law and Co-Director of the Centre for Marine Ecological Resilience and Geological Resources, Nottingham Law School, Nottingham Trent University in the UK. She is Chair of the Board of the Governing Board of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law and sits on the Managing Board of the European Environmental Law Forum. Elizabeth's research addresses the creation of normativity in international environmental law (why and how actors come to comply with the law) and she has provided advice to governmental and intergovernmental organisations drawing on her research.